yes, if you can wait for the apple 5 I would ...comes out soon enough I believe...I had to make the switch now. The Att store did the switching of the number but Scott did the syncing...however, the girl I was speaking with offered to sync it for me...but since Scott was with me and we needed to add some more things, Scott just did it all for me. But I do believe you can have someone do it all for you...you don't need to have Scott do it for you! (thinking that is the answer you were looking for :)

Yes, we transferred all my info from my BB to the new iPhone...so far so good with it all...and the fact that my calendars sync is huge. I rely so heavily on the calendar and reminders it was really what I had to do.

JE will be in NY next week...we will get you in to see him! I know you need to :)
Have a great weekend Rich
