Product Description

Builder Research Paper Edition from Mead is the revolutionary software to plan, organize and write better research papers. Our portable software, delivered on a 2G flash drive, will help you build a plan, stay on schedule, and get your paper done, saving you time and helping you learn how to do it along the way. The Builder software consists of six easy-to-follow steps in assembling your paper. The steps are carefully designed to build as you progress. Use it over and over again, for all your research paper assignments- it's literally a tutor that will get you through this process way easier.
