As with all of our events, we believe that the astronauts (attendees / participants) are the most vital part of a fun party. For that reason, tickets can only be bought with an individual access code. To get your code head over to www.RobotHeart.info to connect your Facebook account and tell us a little more about yourself and your intentions on this intergalactic mission this weekend.

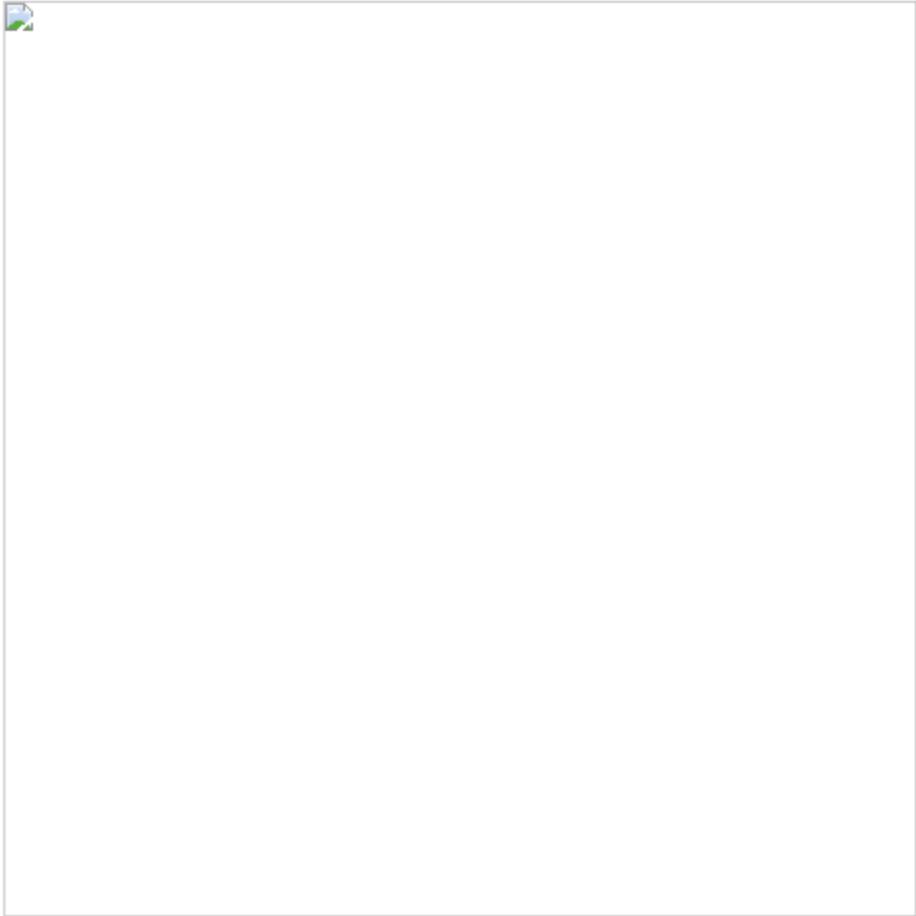

ACT FAST. Codes do not guarantee access to tickets and tier three is almost complete.

Click below for a recap video of Halloween 2015 and a sneak preview of the expected Friday joys from WhoMadeWho and the Saturday magic from Stephan Bodzin.
