hi lesley,

We shall come back to the appartment tonight.

I hoped that the cleaning lady would have prepared it, but as I looked at the alarm it was not disabled from the moment we have left. So I understand that she has not been there.

So disappointing.

Can you please see if she can still prepare it this afternoon?

We shall arrive at around 11PM.

For next time, I think it is preferably that the cleaning lady will come as we leave. I try not to leave garbage and dirty dishes. But as it happens that we leave early in the morning (as this is the case on our last stay), I cannot do it and the smell of rotten stays few days. That is not good.

If she can come, I can disable the alarm now.

thanks, sorry
