hello lesley,

I wanted to let you know, beforehand, that we will leave tomorrow early morning and come back on November 12 at night.

If teresa can come tomorrow morning, I will not arm the alarm when we leave, (then I will do that only tomorrow afternoon).

i wanted also to ask that she will leave backup towels. it is not convenient to have only one bath towel each for 5 days. tes used to leave at least one more big towel for each of us, and then we got back from laundry during the week some more. maybe teresa doesn't know it yet, but i asked on Saturday and there were no towels for this app. from the laundry. sorry to be a nuisance...:(

all the best,
Nili
