Hi Dave and thank you so much for your email address. I have not heard any news on this big trip to Middle East. I am sure JE is aware you need to know the details(I even told him so and asked yesterday) but have heard nothing. Between you and me I do not think he wants to do it. I have reservations for him at a hotel in Doha and we must cancel tomorrow to not be charged. I will remind him again tomorrow. Hopefully that will help him give us all an answer! Lesley

Hi Lesley,

I wanted to make sure that you knew that I am using [REDACTED] for my company emails now. Larry is on his way back to Florida and Chip will be arriving tomorrow morning at 11:15 a.m.

Have you heard any news about our trip to Doha, Qatar on November 3rd or any other confirmed departures? We have to let the authorities know our departures and arrivals at least 24 hours in advance according to the information I have received for the airports we will be visiting in the Middle East.

Thanks,

Dave
