Hi [REDACTED]!

So you know, [REDACTED] is taken care of. Her data has been backed up to her external drive AND moved over to her new machine.

Her previous MacBook Pro has been erased and has a fresh install of macOS Sierra 10.12.2 (most current) installed and ready for its next owner to set it up and go.

She also had an older MacBook Air whose screen doesn't work at all. I confirmed the damage and erased the drive so it's ready to be recycled/trashed.

Hope you're having a fab day.

Thank you,

Hi. James,

Thank you so much for offering your help but I think I will head out very soon. Unfortunately, I already purchased earlier before I emailed you but I got a pretty generous student Discount. How big would have been discount from HBRK accociates?

Also, tell them that your purchase should be "linked to the business account HBRK Associates". You can still pay however you were going to, but this will discount the price.

If they have trouble finding the account, it was set up by Mark Brophy @ the UES store.

Hi James,

I am running 10-15 min late, I apologize for that but I am still at Apple Store and it is taken longer than I thought.
