Greg, things have become quite tight for Jeffrey toward the end of today...we can keep this on the calendar and I can watch how things are progressing...or if you prefer, we could set a time for tomorrow morning if better for you? Just let me know your preference.

thanks, [REDACTED]

Jeffrey --

I take it that my January 14 reply below must have fallen through the cracks.

If you would like to speak, I am happy to set a time to talk. We are nine months out from when I began performing the work and incurring the expenses and I haven't received any payment.

Hope all is well with you.

Regards,

Greg

Jeffrey –

I am following up on our correspondence below dated December 5 and December 22 as well as my emails to Darren Indyke dated August 18, September 12, September 16, October 1, October 13, October 25, October 26, November 14, and November 30 regarding the outstanding invoices.

I would very much appreciate receiving payment.

All the best in 2017.

I hope that you are well. I am writing because all of my firm's invoices for services rendered and out-of-pocket expenses incurred on your behalf going back to May 1, 2016 (i.e., more than seven months ago) remain unpaid. I have been attempting unsuccessfully for the past four months to get the invoices paid through Darren Indyke. On October 26, I offered a 10% discount on the outstanding balance in an effort to receive payment. I have received no response from Darren to that email (and no response to follow-up emails that I sent to Darren on November 14 and November 30). I remain willing to provide a 10% discount on the outstanding balance in an effort to receive prompt payment.

All the best,

Greg
