Happy Sunday [REDACTED]!

I have heard it has been very cold in New York, hope you are staying warm:)

Everything is great here in Tokyo, and I wanted to thank you again for all the work you have done with organizing my trip, it all has been perfect!

I have attached below a couple of pictures, I thought you might like. These are from the tea house that is located in the middle of Tokyo! (who would have guessed). I was very fortunate to attend a tea ceremony there, and the lady on the picture is 89 years old tea master.
