Seeking Less Costly Option, Town Council Rejects $550,000 Renovation Project at Vine Cottage

By Michael Dinan

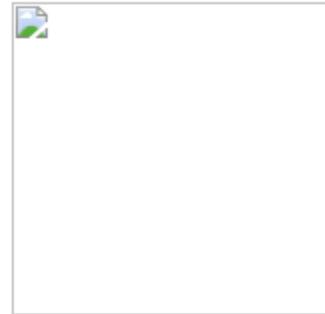

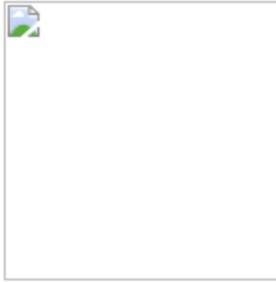

Saying they need to understand the building's long-term purpose first and whether it could be passably restored (and legally occupied) for less money, members of New Canaan's legislative body on Wednesday night unanimously rejected a proposal to renovate Vine Cottage for $550,000. The Town Council voted 10-0 against the bond issuance during its regular meeting. [...]

Did You Hear ... ?

By Michael Dinan

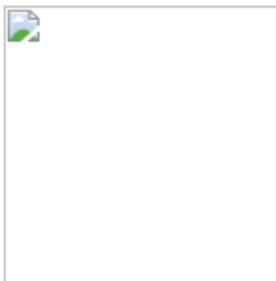

The photos from our gallery this week are from a party honoring town resident Dick DePatie after 19 years as parish administrator at St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Congratulations to Dick and the DePaties! The March 17 'DePatie DeParty' in Morrill Hall featured musical numbers, including from a ukulele band.  Officer Allyson Halm of the New Canaan Police [...]
