your dates below are strange at the bottom of this as well...please just type:

June 18: Boston-AMS for Joscha only

June 19 AMS-Berlin for Joscha only

June 10 Bos-BER via FRA for Mira and kids only

I AM JUST GIVING YOU the example of how I need it for simplicity...

Dear Lesley,

Could you please help us again with flights to Europe?

I will visit a symposium and doctorate thesis defense of one of my students in the Netherlands in June, and we would like to visit colleagues and family in July; if you could book flights for us it would be a great help!

The symposium is in Tilburg on the 19th of June, so I would need a flight from Boston to AMS (or any airport nearby, like Eindhoven, Brussels or Dusseldorf) arriving on the 18th of June, from AMS (or nearby) to BOS, departing on the 20th of June.

(Basically, any flight is ok as long as it does not have layovers that take forever...)

For the flight to Germany, we would like to fly with Lufthansa to Berlin on 10th of July and back on the 10th of August.

We plan a 1 day stop at Frankfurt on the way back if possible.

We need to get from Berlin to FRA on the 9th of August in the morning with Lufthansa (so we can check the bags through) and leave on the next day (10th of August)

Here are the most convenient flight connections:

10 Juni 2017 BOS - BER via FRA

LH flight LH423 BOS - FRA

17:05 Boston - Logan International, MA (BOS) ,Terminal E to Frankfurt/Main International (FRA) , Terminal 1

LH flight LH174 FRA - BER
07:45 + 1day
Frankfurt/Main International (FRA) , Terminal 1 to Berlin - Tegel (TXL)

10. August 2017 BER-BOS via FRA with 1 day stop over at Frankfurt Main

9. August: 11:55h Berlin Tegel Airbus A 321 to Frankfurt or another morning Lufthansa flight

10. August: LH flight LH422
13:05h Frankfurt to Boston: Boeing 747-8I

Thank you very much for your help and support!
With kind regards,

Joscha and Mira
