Hi Karyna,

Yes, we are a go for the training on Sept. 12th, however are we able to push the start time to 9am due to the additional time needed for the oxygen tank and the first aid/emergency kits?

Also, we require a deposit prior to the training date for the training. However, due to the fact that the session was scheduled just last week, if you haven't already sent the deposit out you can simply pay in full at the time of the training. Please place the check in a sealed envelope and give to the instructor.

Thanks!

Kelly

Hi Kelly,

I just wanted to follow up and confirm if we are all set for the training at 9 E 71st St on September 12th at 9:30am?

Thank you,

Karyna
