OMG...all day long all I hear is the preordering of the Iphone X...did you get our order in?
Wake up at 3am? !

On another note, my phone is definitely starting to glitch...it is losing battery power quickly now...is there anything I can do to help prolong the battery life? Or is this why they produce a new phone every 2 years. (other weird stuff is happening too...stalling...sticking...suddenly going to the home page when in the middle of something...my texts don't scroll up properly anymore...just kinda weird...but perhaps typical...I was hoping to give this phone to Ty...is it possible to get a new battery?)

Hope all is well! Lesley
