Thank you for all your efforts! I checked but it seems even the big stores are closed today.
If you get any idea let us know.
Have a happy thanksgiving!

Good morning Mira. So sorry for all of this ... I am told the air mattress is In Our storage bin in the basement and no one has a key who is available at the apartments(our maids and Houseman have keys but they are all at home today). Considering it is thanksgiving I don't know if stores like bed bath and beyond are open to purchase one. (?). Trying to coordinate with [REDACTED] and another assistant at the apartments on how they can help. Will keep you posted. Lesley

Unfortunately the sofa is not a sofa bed and the queen bed is too small for all 4 of us. I know everybody is very busy but if there is any chance to at least get one air mattress for the 2 kids tomorrow would be an enormous help.
