Hi [REDACTED]...I think when you return we should work on a sushi restaurant that opens at 11am around here. The 11:30am start time is hard to have something here at noon...I see KO Sushi opens at 11am...perhaps you could have a look at menu and test it out. I would hate to order from here and it be lousy! Just something to think about...

I pulled up the menu for KO Sushi on Seamless web...

Hope you are having fun with your parents!

Hi [REDACTED],

Yes, 12pm is a tricky time for sushi. I don't know of any other decent sushi around that opens earlier than Atlantic grill. Sometimes we did Kappo Masa for lunch, but they open at 12pm. Atlantic Grill usually takes 30 min to get the order ready, meaning they would have it ready for pick up around 12pm...

In regards to the list, you mean other restaurants to order from, it do you need a list for Atlantic Grill?

Hi [REDACTED]...we need to order some sushi for a 12pm lunch today....do you still order from Atlantic Grill? or where does JE like sushi from these days? Atlantic Grill kitchen doesn't open until 11:30am which makes getting sushi here for noon difficult...

Also, if you could provide me a list of what he is liking these days that would be helpful also.
