ME-G, my sister is so thankful for you...she said her house has never been so clean...I greatly appreciate you going over there for me (us)...as your role with us is evolving and changing..I want to ask, as if part of your employment with us, that you go clean my sisters house once every 2 weeks (ish)...incorporate it into what you do for us. Since I am home WAY more and Ty doesn't need constant supervision, AND WE want to keep you!...I was thinking as much as this helps my sister, it would help us also...My sister and family are going through some really tough times....more than I can share...they are not in a position to have some help with cleaning and as you can see, they could really use some help. I would like to integrate this in...what do you think?

G-Yes, of course. I have no problem going there.

ME-G, I can't thank you enough....really appreciate it. ...and she will appreciate even more...

G-Aaww , you're welcome. [REDACTED] very happy to be able to help just a bit and that that little makes her and you happy.

ME- more than you know..

...you can be proud for making a difference in someones life...

G-Aaww Les , thank you.

I still have one more room to tackle 😊

....and then we left it with she will come to you on Tuesday...and if need be Friday as well...I'll make sure Ty can go home with someone on Tuesday so she can get a full day in...if you leave her some laundry to do, she can do that also...just let me know or leave her a note.... I leave her lots of notes!...maybe I give her the Target gift card so she can purchase cleaning supplies or any thing she feels would be good for cleaning your house better ;) it is a total of $58.80
