Yes. And I get it. I hate when pp park crooked but if it the only space available you want to park. But it exacerbates the problem. Difficult! And when you are n a hurry to your GF class that you pay big bucks for you don't want to miss a minute. Moral is: leave earlier to class so you can find a decent Parker Ng spot to park straight in!!

I haven't finished reading the article but TOO funny! -- she was even rushing for her GOFigure class! hilarious. . . sort of -- NC would NOT let mine go (saying that they are making me pay because they want to deter crooked parking - taking up two spaces. . . go find another space!)
