Dear Mr. Jeffrey Epstein

On behalf of Dame Helen Mirren, this year's honoree, you are invited to come celebrate her Chaplin Award at the Film Society of Lincoln Center's Spring Gala on Monday, April 30th.

Join Helen and her presenters including Mikhail Baryshnikov, Morgan Freeman, Taylor Hackford and Jeremy Irons for cocktails at the Lincoln Ristorante from 5:30pm to 7:00pm. The tribute will be at Alice Tully Hall at 7:00pm, followed by a seated dinner in the foyer of David H. Koch Theater at 9:00pm.

We have invited a group of financial and cultural leaders to experience this annual star-studded tribute to our favorite cinema queen, Helen Mirren. As always, I will make sure you are comfortable and happy with your seating, which I am organizing, to include many of Helen's actor friends.

Tickets are priced at $2,500 each or $5,000 a couple, which supports the Film Society's ongoing important work to bring quality cinema to New Yorkers. You can RSVP to me directly and I will coordinate your ticket with Film Society of Lincoln Center.

Helen Mirren has appeared in more than sixty films. In 2007, she won an Oscar for her performance in The Queen. Upcoming roles include Winchester and The Nutcracker and the Four Realms.

In television she is best known for her role as DCI Jane Tennison in Prime Suspect, her Emmy-winning performance in Elizabeth I, and Phil Spector, for which she won Best Actress at the SAG Awards.

On stage, she reprised her role as Queen Elizabeth II on the West End stage and on Broadway in The Audience to acclaimed reviews, winning both an Olivier Award and a Tony Award.. Mirren was awarded the prestigious BAFTA Fellowship in 2014 for her outstanding career in film.

We hope you can come. It's going to be an elegant evening. I will call you next week to further discuss joining us.

xoxo,
Peggy
