Hi Sonam...Jeffrey has given me 3 dresses he wishes to send to someone for a gift...they are all wrinkled and in need of ironing...would it be possible for you to iron the dresses when you have a moment? The dresses are on my desk in the bags they were shipped in... They don't need to be perfect but at least better than what they are! We then need to put in gift boxes and wrapped in gift wrap (birthday themed paper is good). On Friday we will fed ex to California.

Please keep this 'project' between you and me ;)

OK!? Lesley :)
