You should put in a letter. I'm sending a lawyer. Don't ignore this. They will build exactly across from you 1. A bus and group entrance, 2 a loading dock for party rentals (used almost every weekend), 3 a massive building to block your sunlight and views.

They are trying to jam it through, it matters that we fight. My real estate lawyer is attending and will vehemently object.

Write a letter and send a lawyer. Delay at least so they don't pass it tomorrow. Supposedly the chairperson retires tomorrow after this meeting do it must be stopped. If they want more space, why not buy the adjacent building townhouse/gallery on 70th, which is for sale.

Howard

Please see the letter we submitted on Friday.

I understand getting a similar letter in will be helpful, as will an appearance.

I intend to go down myself so please introduce me to your legal folk so that we can stay in touch.

Also, I have not been able to reach Epstein, Miller or the neighbor on the east side of your building (whom I don't know).

If you have contact information for them or can otherwise bring these ongoing to their attention, please let me know.

For what it's worth, I am down the street from you in Bridgehampton so please let me know if you want to chat live tomorrow.

We will probably be out east most of the day before heading back.

Thanks again for jumping into the fray on this.
