Thank you for your reply! Jeffrey would like to do a remote consult for $1500. Please advise where to send the check and details.

Jeffrey says he can give you all you need on the phone. When would be a good time to set up this Skype call? Perhaps Monday or Tuesday next week (June 18/19)?

Hi Lesley,

I am traveling today through next Wed and my next available free date would be a week from today. Im happy to review his MRI beforehand and if he wishes, he can send any relevant medical records directly to my residence to maintain confidentiality if he so pleases. Otherwise, as part of his evaluation I would need to review these records during our visit. if its difficult to coordinate our respective travel schedules(i am traveling all of July as well) we can do a Sype as well.

What this would entail:

Review of records

Interview and exam

Report with recommendations

Regarding any fees, if I need to travel to see Jeffrey my half day rate is $2500. If we do a remote consult, $1500

Thank you,
Dr. Lombard
