Below is from Inna in the Russian Visa specialist department at G3 Miami office. You will also need a Letter of Invitation (G3 can provide one if you cannot):

Good afternoon,

We will need to file the court paperwork (copies) and statement letter detailing the case (dated with current address and tel / email) signed by traveler along with regular paperwork; the consulate may request additional information after submission. The decision whether to issue a visa will be at the Consul 'a General discretion - the decision is always made on the individual basis.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions.

Thank you,
