Hi. Returned from Alaska cruise celebrating my 65th birthday and retirement. Ship was disappointing but otherwise we had fun. Found a house in Victoria we would like to move to. A little more expensive than would like but if we sell our Portland place difference should not be great. High above water but has an apartment that my mother could live in part of the year which I think is important now that she is 97. Will depends on whether downpayment is enough and whether our earlier ore approval still works now that I am retired.

Almost done with prep for podcast. Should unveil in a couple of weeks. Did I send you links to rough cuts?

How are you doing. Things settling down at all?

Waiting to hear of nat geo will sign me for the new book. And some investment group says they want to arrange a Canadian speaking tour. Will see if that pans out.

I read the complaint. Not the type case Kaiser usually brings. Dina is a good mediator for an employment case but this one is out of her wheel house. It's a bit out of my expertise also since I am an employment lawyer. However I am back in the office Wednesday and will give this thought if you want to discuss.

I am not using any of the pills for the last 3 years . Cause I was so worry about my red spot on my face ( the same as yours ) and I was sure that it's cause I am allergic to something - so I decided not to take any of them + I didn't have a regular sexual life and non- of gynecologist recommend it

And if I decide to take them - I feel like it shouldn't be random pills ! Doctor should see my blood test - and chose right one for me ( cause if it's not right now girl might have problems with her skin, over weight, emotional unstable - and obviously I don't want that )

Agreed- 1 . You are already emotional! 2 the newer pills have much less side effects. My doctor that reviewed your cyst report said she would try . No surgery!! We can FaceTime tomorrow or whenever convenient. I also will explain insurance

I knew her very well. She drove herself crazy . Worrying and took her own advice and of her boyfriend. That knew little as well. She went to doctor after doctor. Anxiety and bad answers. Had a very bad ending. She was great. Smart but so lost and confused and worried . It was easy to have been another ending. But she didn't have a father and no one was strong with her .
