I think you have ignored my advice almost every step of the way . as of course you are free to do. you didn't ask for his bill along the way so he fucked u. you hired him instead of a local . you have made yourself a pariah. asking for your airfare. instead of damages. ? wanting to reopen the aus investigations. tell me and justin that they couldn't wouldn't , . sending an apology to a victim. trying to dissect into small pieces and ignoring case. and perimeter. no testimony from lucy. . that being said, i might think about filing a court action at this stage . you told me last week how good you are with faculty .. blah blah, without understanding the mechanics of conciliation. tell m that this is HOW it should be . reporting. investigation . conciliation, . does little good. . I ask for strategy for weeks and you tell me every9ihg but

Thanks for the nice email to wake up to. The dean has taken the first slot so I will have to meet the committee second. Kimberley phone me last night and she said she thinks that is better because she can call me and tell me what the dean says and I can frame my statement accordingly. She expects the dean to simply say there can be no conciliation, which I agree is likely. I read her the Abor doc about the charge to the committee and helped embolden her to ask some tough questions of the dean. And she had some good ideas. But of course she has no expectations. She just said if he comes in not willing to negotiate at all and i come in showing willingness she thinks that may help me later in a lawsuit.

Anyway that is my news of the morning. Gonna work out and shower and then will call.

From Macron

We believe that we need to rethink, rebuild and invent (i) governance and format of international institutions, (ii) commitments and relationships between public and private stakeholders and (iii) socio-economic instruments to better address these challenges. Which socio-economic innovations would you support to promote more “progressist” future?”.
