Cute! Then I would recommend putting it some place by the window. In 8H I first had it in a hallway and she just ignored it, once I moved it to the bedroom by the window- she loves it!:)

I left her in your place to go out and she finished her dinner and then when I came home she was crying so badly to me when I punched in the code. Felt so bad so I stayed with her in your bed. I hope it's ok, I slept with clothes on ;) just didn't want to cause more upheaval in her day. We moved up to mine for breakfast and she ate it all which makes me think she got comfortable with me in the night in her own home and is now happy with my smell and my place

Yes, it's a good sign she has eaten everything. Thank you, and of course it is ok to stay in my place, you can stay there anytime! With or without clothes
