No, just wanted to ask if there was something unusual with [REDACTED] stool of may be any different food. She just started having diarrhea since last night, has been on a toilet 7 times for the past 24 hours..

Hey loves, [REDACTED] isn't too well, just wanted to check whether anyone gave her anything other than the 1 can of food I gave to [REDACTED] to give her. Could she have eaten anything else? Would be so helpful to know because we could then estimate severity and length of how long it may last.

He gave me some meds and they will do a fecal test, he thinks she will be fine. We don't know what it is, since there were no diet changes..

I talked to Karyna, nothing was in food I gave and I didn't give her anything else of mine.
I only fed her once and she ate half of the can and nothing strange I noticed not sure what's wrong

In palm beach it was definitely food change that I made, but she never had diarrhea like this time and that frequent.

I thought too. Could it be an allergy? I gave her a few treats in her play box before I left.
