I'm very lucky with certain things that I have and that I have created for myself so I want to focus on myself and this and my abilities and my talents. Not on friendships that aren't working and on past hurts.

There is the obligation of your word and decency. And I keep that. Just two weeks. They are a great name and I needed a start somehow.
This is what makes me feel like Myself and what I do don't matter. And I want to be surrounded by people where I do.

I’m putting strict rules. One may be to complete everything in my life within the time the person giving it thinks it takes. And then to go and enjoy.

Maybe ones day when I have the time and I feel I can deal with it again. It's a year of build up, of either poor response because of irresponsibility or not wanting to be in something. I may be having a rough patch, but deep down I do know my value, because I see it in the response of people I meet when I am out. I don't have to beg people for friendships. Something is strange there. It been happening for a while. I don't know if it is partly the wife. I'm not going to spend my energy on it or trying to figure it out. I know my intuition and I know it's strong. I picked up changes in [REDACTED] long before they came to light.
