Inside/Out

Padma's Plantation®

Dear Friends,

I am thrilled to present to you our new outdoor collection, perfect for use in both indoor and outdoor environments. As you browse through our new catalog, you will find that we have finally designed the outdoor collection that you, our valued customers, have been asking for: Outdoor furniture that looks as unique and special as our indoor collections.

For our Inside/Out collection, every piece is hand-woven, making each piece unique – as individual as the artisan who crafted it. Each single strand of our outdoor wicker is finished by hand, creating incredible depth and mimicking the color variances of natural materials.

I invite you to create an environment outdoors where you can sit back, relax, and truly escape your busy lives. Your oasis of peace and relaxation should be as beautiful and unique as your own home, an expression of your individual style. Inside, you will discover the special furniture that will help you create and live *the life you imagine...

both indoors and out!*

Con Cariño,
