Dear Client:

You will soon be receiving your first electronic deposit, payment or charge to your account with Firstbank, commonly known as "Electronic Funds Transfer", or "Electronic Transactions". As a result of your authorization to deposit or charge your account, we must send you a written notice to confirm the electronic transfer. For more information, refer to Part III of your Account Agreement.

If the checking or savings account being utilized for this electronic transfer is a statement account, you will be notified in the monthly statement. If it is a passbook account, your account will be updated to show the electronic funds transfer, when you visit the branch and make a transaction in such account.

You may call FirstLine Customer Center at (340) 693-1700 or our Customer Service numbers shown below to obtain balance, deposit, and other information on your account.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your valuable patronage and the opportunity to serve you.

Cordially,

FIRSTBANK
