Caller identification - show your number

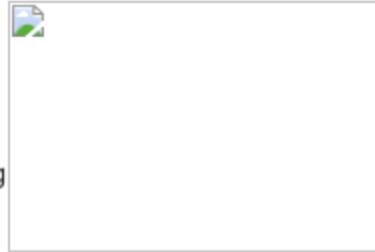

Display your mobile number when you call or text from Skype. This lets friends know who's calling and if they're not on Skype, they've got your number to text or call you back.

Send SMS messages directly from Skype

You can do so much more with Skype Credit. SMS messages, for example, are cheap and really easy to send with Skype. No more struggling with fiddly keys or confusing txtspk; just type your heart out and send.
