Hello Karyna,

Hope this message will find you well.

I just saw your e-mail, where you mentioned that the attachment with your estimate for a BL Chest was missing . Sorry for not catching it earlier, our e-mail system was down for quite some time unfortunately. Please, accept my apologies about it and find the estimate attached again. At the moment we are extending our Black Friday Sale and offering 25% on everything in the store and 15% on custom orders. Let me know if you have any questions.

Kind regards,

Tatyana Chaar
