Your input is great! I still think ivory carpet is nice and I am glad you love the bed fabric.

What about a chic peach color grasscloth on wall?

That would add alot of interest. I love Kelly Wearstler!

Hi Erin!

Thank you for all the materials today. I went through the samples you left, really liked the bed fabric choice. I just would like to clarify with the colors we use. For the bedroom I thought originally using pale peach as a main color, with white and dark brown (like on the picture I've sent you). Looks like you are thinking more white/ivory and beige/gold, which I also like, but if we do this combination, I will follow the palette on the picture I attached below (another one of Kelly Wearstler, love her design!), I wouldn't use dark wood nightstands then, would go with something light.

Sorry, I am not very helpful at the moment, I have something important coming up in 2 weeks and have to get ready, after March 20th I will focus more on the apartment. Jeffrey knows too, so don't worry if we won't get much done until then:)
