so frustrating. the worst of it is that he just doesn't respond. if he needs more time, then fine, but just not to respond is so unprofessional.

Last I heard from him was on Friday when he told me he was still working on it, that the letter was 10 pages and he didn't have it right yet and that he would get it to me Saturday and I have still received nothing. Lesley called him for me and left a message and both she and I emailed Arda again today. I will keep at it.
