Good morning! I just wanted to check in to see when you think you will be needing our passports for the visa? I'm going to be traveling quite a bit the rest of the month and just trying to work out if I should leave our passports in NY for someone to drop off to you once you're ready for them. I know we still have a bit of time, but wanted to check in nonetheless.
thank you!

If you still have the same passports (see attached) and the work information - Financial Trust Company - did not change, then I will only need from you the date you want your visas to start and the cities in Russia you are planning to visit.

The only thing is that it takes 3 business days to process your visas. Say, if you bring me the paperwork on Friday, Jan 28, the visas will be ready on Wednesday, February 2, etc.
