Membership update

Dear Karyna Shuliak,

As a valued N.dulge de luxe member, we're delighted to offer you special privileges such as double rewards, priority access to events, first look at sale and special birthday gifts. We would love for you to continue your de luxe membership for another year, and you still have three weeks to renew – how to do so is outlined below. If you decide not to renew your de luxe membership, you will automatically become an N.dulge member, which comes with many privileges including $5 for every 100 points earned, birthday gifts and more.

How to renew your de luxe membership

N.dulge de luxe membership requires customers to spend $1,000 or more within 12 months of the date that membership began. If you reach this total, your account will be automatically renewed for another year. You can see exactly where you are and when your membership is due to be updated at the bottom of this email.
