An important note about debit and credit card transactions:

Your credit or debit card will not be charged until your item(s) has shipped, at which time we will email you the tracking information. Before your item(s) ships, your debit or credit card statement will show what looks like a deduction from your account. Please note: These funds have not been deducted but are being reserved within your account to ensure that your order can be processed. This is known as an authorization hold and typically lasts from 3 to 7 days, depending on the policy of your bank or credit card company.

Please note that at any time after our receipt of your order, we reserve the right to accept or decline your order, or any portion thereof, even after your receipt of an order confirmation. We reserve the right to cancel orders due to discrepancies with billing information or if an unauthorized promotion code has been used. We reserve the right, at our sole discretion, to limit the quantity of items purchased and/or prohibit sales to dealers. In the event that a product has been listed at an incorrect price, we shall have the right to refuse or cancel orders placed for the product listed at that incorrect price, regardless of whether the order has been confirmed and/or your debit or credit card has been charged. If your debit or credit card already has been charged for the purchase and then your order is canceled, we will issue a credit back to your account in the amount of the incorrect price promptly.
