 Petco Foundation PCA

Dear Karyna,

Each May, the Petco Foundation teams up with Blue Buffalo and Petco stores across the country for the Pet Cancer Awareness fundraising campaign.

In addition to funding cancer research and clinical trials, the PCA campaign also supports organizations that help families afford the cost of pet cancer treatment - families like Rico's.

There's nothing Rico loves more than the beach (he's even been known to surf!), so it came as a huge shock to Rico's family when they found out he was diagnosed with mast cell cancer.

Thanks to your support of the Pet Cancer Awareness campaign, Rico was able to get the treatment he needed to fight the disease. And these days? He's his happy-go-lucky self, still hitting the beach with his family.

Whether you donated in a Petco or Unleashed by Petco store May 14 through June 5, donated online, or purchased Blue Buffalo food or treats, you've personally helped pets like Rico and dozens of organizations and universities across the country fight for a cure.

Thank you for your support!
