Subject: Hi [REDACTED], how are you getting on with the FSI course?

Hi [REDACTED],

It's Darren here again. I hope you're getting on well with the French Basic Course. Let me know if you have any problems at darren@fsi-language-courses.net or if you need any advice on how to use the course, i'll be happy to help.

I am working on a massive project at the moment. I will completely change the way we work with the FSI courses.

The FSI courses are really comprehensive, and the quantity of audio is exceptional (not something you will find with duolingo). Unfortunately the FSI courses tend to be somewhat outdated and suffer from being quite boring to use.

So I thought I would let you know that I have big plans to overhaul these courses. This is a massive undertaking of work.

If you go to my website here you can play with a prototype of the course that I am developing.

[REDACTED] very excited about the potential for this project - I hope I can rely on your support...even just sharing the website now on Facebook/Twitter/Forums helps me so much.

All the best and happy learning,

Darren Kenny
