My dear, I wanted to meet you because I wanted to talk to you in person for you, not for me. It would have been nice, if you responded to my messages out of common courtesy. Please do not confuse me with your former acquaintances who betrayed you. I had your back even if you were not aware of it, because you deserved it. I value loyalty, but only if one truly deserves it. I could not contact you before because I did not have Kelly's and your contact info before New Year's. . Now, you broke my heart by ignoring my best intentions. But I just want you to know that I have been a loyal friend, even if you are not aware of it, because you deserve it. I am wishing all the best to you.
