To whom it may concern:

Hello, we are two friends (females) interested in the room to rent in your apartment.

We are both Europeans, working in the city. We are nice, neat and friendly girls in our 20s, no-smokers, no drugs, and we like to keep our place organized and clean. We are looking for a long term place to live in, we don't stay home much, as working most of the time. We like to go out as well, but we never bring the party home, we respect your space.

We need to move in by July 1st,

If you are interested, please call anytime at [REDACTED] (Karina), [REDACTED] (Kate), or email at [REDACTED]

We also attached our photo.

Thanks for your time, we are looking forward to hear from you,

Best regards,

Kate and Karina.
