Hi [REDACTED] and Igor. When Je came to PB last time, he was traveling with a black coat with fur lining. He had it on the flight from LA to Miami on Virgin America. I don't know where it ended up. I have not seen it, it's not on the island and Janusz says its not at PB house. Did either of you see it when JE came to the house? It's a black Brioni coat lined in fur. If no one has seen it, I need to contact the airlines to see if he left it on board. Thanks
