Greetings Karyna,

Perfect. We can take a copy of the email Janusz used and the email you just sent to Customs to clear the cabinet next week. They have the name of the vendor, the value and the Country of Origin. We should have no problems.

We will let you know when the cabinet has arrived, when it is cleared, and when it is on LSJ.

Kind regards, DW

Yes it does :)

It sounds like this is a used cabinet, so we can create our own invoice if needed. Do you have the name of the Ebay vendor - just in case?

Kind regards, DW

Hi Daphne,
I bought this from ebay, so there is only an email invoice. The country of manufacture is Turkey, however the item location before it was shipped states as New Jersey, US.
Does this help?
