Just checking that you got the answers you needed from Brice today so the mirrors can ship tomorrow? And as you saw from my last email, we are just having you send them Tropical Shipping in Miami..not via plane to STT. Thanks!

Hi [REDACTED],

We were playing phone tag yesterday... so no I haven't been able to speak with him yet. I'll go ahead and give him another ring. I'll let Joe know to send it by plane.

Thanks!

I will ask. What does seamed mean exactly?

Hi [REDACTED],

I have one question...do you need the edges seamed or are the clean cut edges fine (it'll be just like the sample you received)? A quick note: If we seam the edges it can lead to more distortion and/or gaps when butted together. My recommendation is to leave the edges as is. Please let me know ASAP as these are ready to be shipped today.

Thank you!
