Thanks [REDACTED]. We can still have Jojo call I think to arrange. Is Janusz taking you, [REDACTED] and Francis? I don't even know where Francis lives. Thanks for organizing all..just headed to bed. Late night!

They eventually, after asking me a lot of questions and taking all my details, are letting him take it tomorrow to take us to the airport. I don't know who out of the 2 of you they know best but could one of you call them and organize that Janusz can drive for the next couple of weeks. I also had no idea that the Bentley and the Suburban are in different places. I am sorry, this is partly my fault, I took it for granted that Jojo would have let them know Janusz was taking over for a couple of weeks.
