Dear Karyna,

Please let me know if you are canceling your tript o Kuala Lumpur. And please see the note below from our General Manager – this may affect your trip….

"I would like to point out that May 9th is the recently announced date of the Malaysia National Elections. Whilst at this stage there is no travel concerns raised, it is important to be aware of this and we can update should there be any concerns arise that would affect the stay. This is also now a public holiday. I was here 5 years ago at the last election and there were a couple of mild street protests in the lead up to the elections but no issues with safety. This week was originally a busy occupancy week in KL with a major Oil and Gas convention but we are awaiting news on whether this event is being re scheduled or not."

I look forward to hearing from you.

All my best,
Jeannine

Hi Jeannine,

Thank you so much! However, it looks like I might have to cancel Kuala Lumpur. I will get back to you as soon as I know.
I have Tokyo reserved from May 4th till the 7th, but I will confirm back to you once I have everything confirmed.

Thank you very much!

Karyna
