Ramon. it appears that most if not all the things that you and i discussed on the trips to the island were fully ignored. shade infinity pool , numnber of seats. bedroom windows. . location of girls. . wind. . , I assume you did none of these drawings. and for the past months while a topo and drone are useful there is virtually no progress. you should send drawings along the way , as to never have a presentation that has soo many errors. . the images you showed me were great. photos of hotels and homes. . the drawings you sent after months bear little resemblance. . if any . the mexiacan image of the small casitas ? I have sent your presentation to my group and everyone is shaking their heads.? asking how? the great st james doesnt even have informative elevations .? .
