I have some in the office here. I can meet you at 66th sometime this week and give you all the keys we have here. No point in us keeping them anymore. Or, I can have them all dropped off with the doorman this week, and you can just leave the mail with the doorman for me to pick up. Whatever is easier for you is fine with us.

No problem. Do you know where the mailbox key is? Is it with the doorman?

Hey [REDACTED], Do you mind holding onto any mail that might come there for me, and I'll pick it up from you at the end of next week? By that time, everything should be moved over to my new address.

Thanks, Amanda
