Hey guys. Just forwarded you a PDF file of the items being delivered so far tomorrow for 8H bathroom. Please disregard the vanity..that is the only thing not coming on the list. [REDACTED] is ordering a different vanity and sink today and will forward details once I have them. We still need to source the medicine cabinet, shower doors and sconces if wanted/needed. I know we want to do a drop ceiling with puck lights, so [REDACTED] needs to decide if she wants a sconce over the med cabinet as well.
