Hi Akiva,

I apologize for the delay. We might need to add one more of the Dornbracht Tara handshower sets. Is it possible to find out what is the diameter of the shower head itself please? we could not find it in the product specifications.

Thank you very much!

Karyna

Sure, no problem. I just want you to be aware that Dornbracht is having a price increase starting July 1st.

Yes, you can copy him. If you are switching to Dornbracht you will need the roughs too.

We used a different brand, mostly Grohe I believe. I think it might be helpful if I connect you with my colleague Brice, who is on site and knows this subject much better then I do. Can I copy him on the email ?

Are you replacing Dornbracht fixtures with Dornbracht fixtures? Or were you using a different brand originally?

Thank you for your advice about the valves. We are replacing all the existing fixtures that are already in place. In that case, do you think we might need any additional parts?
Thanks a lot!

Also, some of the items will need the roughs like the shower heads for example. Would you like me to add /edit your cart?

You will need a thermostatic trim for the temperature and a volume control to turn the water on and off. Now, depending on whether or not you want all 3 functions running simultaneously or not you can either get a three-way diverter and or another 2 volume controls for a total of 3; one per function. Let me know if that helps.

I am checking on the valve requirements for the shower controls, once I know I will make a few adjustments.

Hi,

I spoke with Dornbracht. I will send you a snapshot of the items that were in your cart along with lead times next to each item. We are located in NJ. Where are you?

Hi,

I just sent you a response and quote in regards to your inquiry for the Dornbracht items. Being that the company isn't open now, I will have to confirm in the morning the exact timing.

If you wouldn't mind placing the order through the quote as we get credit based on our performance, I'd really appreciate it.

Are you planning on purchasing all of those items? If yes, I can give you better pricing.
