Good Morning Karyna

I just wanted to update you on Everlyn who is to be working on Bed Netting and Main Kitchen Banquette, she will be "off Island" on vacation until the 12th November. I doubt that she will be able to complete the required work by our required December deadline.

I have made contacted with a couple of other vendors, but all have work up until Christmas. We either will have to wait or perhaps have the bed netting constructed in the US. Please advise how you would like to proceed?

Warmest regards
[REDACTED]
